

U4 Online Course: MONEY IN POLITICS: curbing corruption in election campaigns and political party finance

Dates: 9 April - 3 May 2010
Duration: 3 Weeks (Minimum 30 hours total study time)
Fee: Free for U4 Partner Agency staff and invited partners (includes ministry of foreign affairs / embassy staff)

Apply for this course online: U4.no/training

Why take this course?

Get a better understanding of the role of money in politics and how corruption at this stage impacts development

Start thinking in strategic terms about feasible activities to cover this topic in democratic governance projects

Expected results

Enhanced knowledge about actors in the field - internationally

Increased understanding about the political arena in your country of activity (legislation, monitoring, impacts for development agencies, etc.)

Log on...

...to a virtual classroom to interact with experts and fellow participants around the world. Participate at the time of day which suits you best. For more information see the website or contact Alessandra Fontana (alessandra.fontana@cmi.no)

Buitenlandse
Zaken

DFID Department for International Development

Canadian International Development
Agency

Agence
canadienne de développement
international

U4 is operated by

CMi CHR.
MICHELSEN
INSTITUTE

Photo: douglasengle.com

